Celebration of Our Heroes...
NEW CASTLE, COLORADO Who's Yours?

Burning Mountain Festival is fast approaching, with this year's theme "Celebration of Our Heroes....Who's Yours?" The parade on Saturday September 10, will be starting at 9:30am, followed by Pyro's Memorial Dedication Ceremony. With many events following the parade, like pie eating, log splitting and a Classic Car Show. The music line up this year, Friday night: John Noel, Rick Ganson & Joel Sauer, with the Ralph Dinosaur Band as the headliner; Saturday night: Smuggler Mountain Boys, with Lever Action as the headliner.

So You Want to be a Writer

Always wanted to write a book? Whether you've been working on one, just getting started, or still thinking about it, the library can help. Saturday, October 1st, award winning author Laura Resau will be presenting a writer's workshop at the New Castle Branch Library. Isn't it a delicious feeling to delve into a book and enter another world? Laura Resau will explore ways to offer your readers this joy. She'll share strategies for enriching setting and character through imagery and detail. You'll do short, fun writing exercises to help make your story a vivid, multi-sensory experience that readers can't resist. This workshop will let your writing shine, whether your focus is fiction or creative non-fiction, for adult or teen readers. For mor information or to sign up call the library at 970-984-2346 or go to www.gcpld.org
